BULLA'S MOVE.

Tells His Men to Feel Free to Change.

Suggests That They Vote for Mr.
Grant for Senator.

His Withdrawal Now Would Solve
the Mean Problem.

Hard on the Ground Taking a Look.
Barnes Now One Ahead of Bulla.
San Pedro Harbor Report—Several Measures Passed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Bulla notified his followers last night that he would like to confer with them and they all gathered in room No. 16 this morning,
with the exception of Boynton, Taylor and Currier, the latter of whom is in Los Angeles. Bulla addressed the meeting and declared that he had made up his mind and it was his firm intention to make a statement before the ballot in joint convention today, to the effect that the time had come when the candidates must make individual sacrifices and that he wished it understood that those who have been voting for him were free to go where they chose, that they were not pledged,
and should not be condemned if they changed their votes.

This took the meeting somewhat by surprise, but Belshaw brought those present to a realization of the situation
that would obtain, as he viewed it,
for he insisted that such action on the part of Bulla would look like a skyrocket move, as there was no use in his followers scattering unless they could go to somebody in a way to do good.

He said that while he had been talking about Frank Coombs as his second choice he didn't want to vote for Coombs unless the others voted for him to make it effectual. Bulla said he realized that his action might be looked upon as a skyrocket move,
but reiterated his statement that he wanted his followers, especially the Los Angeles members, to feel free to go whenever and wherever they chose.
He again surprised the meeting by suggesting that they vote for Grant.

Miller of Los Angeles declared that Grant was his second choice, but while he was willing to sacrifice himself upon the altar, he did not wish to be roasted there, and until others left Bulla he did not care to go so that his motives could be assailed.

LaBare confessed to a liking for Van R. Patterson, and Senator Taylor, who formerly voted for Patterson but now votes for Bulla, was sent for to obtain his opinion. When Taylor was found he counseled against Bulla's proposed action, taking the same view as Belshaw. He thought it well to state the case to the press, but not to advertise it from the house-tops,
as would seem to be the case if it was done in joint convention.

MADE NO ANNOUNCEMENT.
This inability of his followers to pick a candidate on whom they could unite and their unwillingness to scatter until convinced that they had found the winner, caused Bulla to reconsider his determination and he consequently made no announcement in joint convention today.

Thus the queer spectacle is presented,
according to some views, of a candidate being kept in the field against his wishes. On the other hand it is alleged that Bulla worked up this idea
not so much because he really desired his followers to quit him, as to forestall any such action and save himself the appearance of being deserted
without consideration for his feelings,
as occurred in the case of Simpson's
flap.

The Grant people are willing to believe that Bulla acted in good faith,
and while it was a great surprise and a matter of gratification to them that he counseled his people to vote for Grant if they chose to make the change, they think he would have solved the Senatorial problem if he had positively decided to withdraw, all
the more since certain of his followers,
immediately after this meeting, declared that he could not win and that they only stayed by him because they were not ready to go elsewhere.

Senator Taylor told the Times correspondent that he knew there were a number of legislators outside of the Bulla camp, as well as some of those in that camp who want to see Paterson elected and when the time comes he believes a formidable boom can be worked up for the Justice, but there was no use launching it with two or three votes and the change which everybody seems to expect is coming
will be awaited.

BARD TAKES A LOOK.
Bard will be here tonight, but Green-
well says he will not open headquarters nor make a canvass. He came to San Francisco on business, and while

"No more shall the war cry sever, Nor the winding rivers be red."

there resolved to take a look at the Senatorial fight. He has three votes, which places him ahead of Scott.

Senator Smith, who was chosen a committee of one by the Grant caucus
to plan a way to organize all the anti-Burns forces, has a big contract on his hands, in view of the apparent disposition of the short-enders to work
things their own way. Assemblyman Brown's change from Felton to Barnes today is pointed to as an instance of this kind, though there is reason to believe that this move is not hostile to Grant, for Gen. Barnes will certainly prefer the latter to Burns or Bulla if he cannot win himself.

Brown says Barnes was his first choice, and is the choice of the people of his county after Felton, who has no show to win. Barnes now leads Bulla
by one vote, owing to Currier's absence, and Burns and Grant are tied.
Brooke (Dem.) who changes about from time to time, gave John Rosenfeld his vote today, and Abbot Kinney
of Los Angeles got a compliment from Assemblyman Mervin of San Bernardino, and W. H. Alford polled Senator Pace's vote.

Senator Morehouse said this afternoon that his committee desired to get the County Government Bill before the Senate on Thursday, if it can be finished in that time. Chairman Huber of the House Committee says
he will get for his committee all the clerical help it needs in order to get the bill into the House as early as possible, but that the bill cannot be finished while the legislators are turning in amendments.

SENATORIAL SENSATION.
Burns's Campaign an Utter Failure.
Kelly on a Tear.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Martin Kelly, one of the big guns in the Burns camp and one of the most notorious political bosses
in the State of California, is as drunk
as the proverbial goat at the Golden Eagle Hotel early this morning.

There has evidently been some kind of a bad break in the Burns camp.
Kelly threatened dire vengeance on Herrin and the railroad.

"That man Herrin is the greatest false alarm in California," is what he told Senator Morehouse.

"Come to San Francisco and I will make you a Senator. We don't want any of those d—d beggars," said the latter.

Kelly was shaking Morehouse by the lapels of the coat, his red face glaring up to Morehouse's own visage. Then they went to shake dice for the drinks. This incident will cause a great sensation
among the Burns touts in the hotel lobby, and it is believed to be an indication that Burns and his people have at last come to recognize the fact that their campaign is a flat failure, and that they might as well go home and curse it out among themselves.

Hervey Lindley tried to bribe one of the Grant workers tonight and tried to pull him over into the Burns camp
with a view to getting inside information.
He was met with a blunt refusal.
This intimation comes from the party who was approached. The party had no information to give and if he had, it would not have been given to Lindley.

FELTON OUT OF THE RACE.
Important Measures Passed by Both Houses—Night Session.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 21.—Charles N.
Felton is out of the Senatorial race,
his lone supporter having on the fifty-eighth ballot taken today, voted for another. Assemblyman Brown of San Mateo, who voted since the beginning of the session for Felton, today changed and voted for Barnes, whom he says is the logical candidate of the several before the Legislature.

The vote was without other incident. The vote was as follows:
Barnes 12, Estes 1, Bulla 11, Burns
25, Grant 25, Scott 2, Bard 3, White
(Dem.) 25, Rosenfeld (Dem.) 3, Phelan

California Naval Station.
Senator Perkins today proposed in the Senate an amendment to the general Navy Appropriation Bill providing that the Secretary of the Navy be authorized to establish a naval station
somewhere on the coast of California, south of San Francisco. The bill also provides that a dry dock may be established if, in the opinion of the Navy Department, it is necessary to do so.
The amendment is designed to provide for the Southern California naval station which has been talked about for several months.

DEMOCRATS MAKING TROUBLE.
An attempt was made by Senator
Nelson today to get the Senate to consider the resolution extending the commerce and navigation laws of the United States to Hawaii. He failed, because the Democrats objected to consideration. It appears to be a part of the plan of the Democrats to keep Congress from enacting laws for Hawaii's government or extending the United States laws to the islands. This is intended to cause the administration embarrassment.

SENATOR WHITE DECLINED.
Senator White was today invited to deliver an address before the Mohawk Club, the leading Democratic organization in Michigan, at Detroit, March
3. On account of business engagements in California the Senator was obliged to decline.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—[Exclusive

troduced as an amendment to the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill the California Mineral Land Bill, making all acts of the Montana and Idaho bills applicable to the State of California.

There is little chance that this legislation will be put into the bill, as any point of order may keep it out of the measure. There is now no hope that the bill in the House will be brought up, and the outlook is that there can be passed at this session no legislation
which will mean a discovery or a sepa-

GET INTO LINE.

President About to Use
the Party Lash.

Administration Stands Up for the Nicaragua Canal.

Czar Reed and All Its Enemies
Can't Defeat it Now.

Extra Session Apparently Inevitable—California Naval Station.
Trouble Made by Democrats.
Conference of Cranks.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—[Exclusive
Dispatch.] The party whip is going to be applied in order to put the Nicaragua Canal Bill through. That is the real news in the situation tonight. It will be recalled that Uncle Joe Cannon felt pretty bitter toward the canal a week ago, but he will have to get into line now, for President McKinley has concluded that the time has come for him to do a little driving on his own account.

This decision on the part of the President was reached yesterday and communicated to Representative Hepburn, who has charge of the Canal Bill in the House. Mr. Hepburn kept it to himself until today, when he let it be known, and at the same time he announced that he could give the names of a sufficient number of Representatives who will vote for the canal in the House to assure the measure over sixty majority. Mr. Hepburn is feeling confident today and Uncle Joe Cannon
is correspondingly depressed.

Thursday the Senate will take up the Rivers and Harbors Bill, according to Senator Frye, and there appears to be not much chance for delay in the final passage of the measure, canal amendment and all. Then it will go to the House and the great struggle will come.
Speaker Reed will, it is hard, but the Republicans have now reached a point where they will have to desert Reed or the administration. There is open war between the two, and the administration appears to be on top.

EXTRA SESSION INEVITABLE.
Nearly all the Senators and Representatives believe tonight that an extra session of Congress is inevitable.
President McKinley himself said today that he hardly saw how one could be avoided, and he told some of his official callers that if the Army Bill or any appropriation bills fail he probably would call Congress back here "about 20, issuing the call March 4. The President seems to favor an extra session rather than otherwise.

CALIFORNIA TODAY.

PLAN OF THE REBS.

ORDER ISSUED BY IMPORTANT
FILIPINO OFFICER.

Everybody Excepting the Filipinos
in Manila Was to Have Been Killed One Night.

ATTACK WAS ALL ARRANGED.

COPY OF THE ORDER CABLED BY
MAJ.-GEN. E. S. OTIS.

"War Without Quarter to Americans" and "Independence or Death" is the sentiment.
Situation Improved.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The following dispatch was received this morning from Gen. Otis:
MANILA, Feb. 21.—Adjutant-General, Washington: The following insurgents at Malolos, February 15, 1899,
for execution during that evening and
night in this city.

[Signed.] OTIS.
"First—You will dispose of at 8 o'clock at night, the individuals of the territorial militia at your order will be found united in all of the streets of San Pedro, armed with their balos and revolvers, or guns and ammunition if convenient.

"Second—Philippine families only will be respected. They should not be molested, but all other individuals of whatever race they be, will be exterminated without any compassion after the extermination of the army of occupation.

"Third—The defenders of the Philippines in your command will attack the guard at Bilibid and liberate the prisoners and 'presidarios' and having accomplished this they will be armed,
saying to them: 'Brothers, we must avenge ourselves on the Americans and exterminate them that we may take our revenge for the infamy and treach-ery which they have committed upon us; have no compassion upon them; attack with vigor. All Filipinos en masse will second you—long live Philippine Independence.'

"Fifth—The order which will be followed in the attack will be as follows:
The sharpshooters of Tondo and Santa Ana will begin the attack from without, and these shots will be the signal for the militia of Tondo, Binondo, Quitandao and Sampaloc to go out into the street and do their duty; those of Pake, Ermita and Malate, Santa Cruz and San Miguel will not start out until 12 o'clock unless they see that their companions need assistance.

"Sixth—The militia of Tondo will start out at 3 o'clock in the morning;
if all do their duty our revenge will
be complete.

"Brothers, Europe contemplates, we know how we die as men, shedding
our blood in defense of the liberty of our country. Death to the tyrants.
War without quarter to the false
Americans who have deceived us.
Either independence or death."

The portion of Gen. Otis' dispatch indicated by dashes the officials were unable to decipher tonight. There is no fourth paragraph in the insurgent statement as furnished to the press.

CONDITIONS ENCOURAGING.

Gen. Miller Getting Along Well—Additional Casualties.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The War
Department has received the following:

MANILA, Feb. 21.—Adjutant-General, Washington: Gen. Miller reports on the 19th inst. that the insurgent forces are a few miles out from Iloilo, and believed to be disintegrating. He can maintain his position with the present force. Business in the city is resumed. He has sent up for representative men and officials from the capital of the island of Negros, where the American flag was raised and American protection requested against the small insurgent forces in the island.
Affairs there and in Cebu are very encouraging. Shall endeavor to maintain and improve the present promising conditions. Affairs here are quiet.
Small insurgent forces east of city
have been driven away with considerable loss to enemies.

Additional casualties:

First Washington—Wounded: February 19, Co. L, Private Carson Ellis, elbow, accidental.

Killed: February 20, Co. K, Private
Alton A. Reinhart; Co. M, John F.
Adams.

First California—Wounded: February
capture of Iloilo.

Just to the east of Negros, separated
20, Co. I, Private Arthur Buhl, thigh;
John W. Parnes, arm; Max R. Krus, arm; Thomas C. Haley, thigh.

Casualties near Iloilo, Panay Islands,
February 14:

Eighteenth Infantry—Killed: Co. A,
Corp. Robert S. Gettigaby.

Wounded: Co. A, Sgt. Robert Jennings, thigh; Co. J, Corp. Robert Saunders, nipple. All wounds above are slight.

[Signed.] OTIS.

BULLETIN NOT CLEAR.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Owing to the lack of punctuation and regard to economy on cable tolls, Gen. Otis' bulletin is not very clear in some essential points, particularly the reference to the Island of Negros.

A careful study of this dispatch on that point by the officials here make them believe that Gen. Otis means to say that four representative inhabitants on the island of Negros have come to Manila, having been sent by Gen. Miller to meet and confer with Otis in regard to the extension of American occupation to that island. Negros is the fourth island in the Philippine group of importance. It lies at its nearest point about ten miles from the Island of Panay and Gen. Miller's forces must have during the week preceding the by a very narrow strait, is the Island
of Cebu, which it is also a part of Gen.
Otis' purpose to occupy. From Gen.
Otis' dispatch, it is gathered that neither at that point nor at Negros is there likely to be a very substantial resistance.

DROVE FILIPINOS OUT.

Red Cross Object of Revenge from Traitorous Rifles.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says that the enemy was concentrating, all day
at the waterworks and in front of Gen. King's brigade. They became so nagging in front of King's position that the general sent two companies of the First Washington Infantry over the Pasig River.

They swept the country for two miles and then swung over to the river bank, opposite the insurgent trenches
facing the American position at Macati
and opened a flank fire on the insurgents across the river.

The guns of the Sixth Artillery, under Lieut. Scott at Macati pounded the insurgent positions while the troops from Macati charged and drove the enemy before them. About fifteen Filipino dead were found and four wounded.

Two American soldiers were wounded
by the explosion of Springfield rifles.
The declaration of Aguinaldo that he has made a humane war is another testament to the fact that the Red Cross has been like a red flag to the insurgents.

Chaplain Pierce of MacArthur's staff
testifies that he has been shot at by sharpshooters fifty times in the provisional hospital. Not an ambulance or litter came which was not the signal
for a shower of bullets.

The surgeons of the hospital corps,
who were giving aid to the Filipinos,
as well as to the American wounded,
were a target for the sharpshooters.

A wounded man who was being carried from the field was killed by insurgent fire in a tree. The Red Cross people are now going armed.

MANILA AND ILOILO QUIET.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

MANILA, Feb. 21, 5:15 p.m.—The United States transport Newport has arrived here from Iloilo with dispatches from Gen. Miller to Gen. Otis. She carries a large quantity of the American troops there are occupying the suburbs of Jaro and Molo, business has been resumed generally with the outside world, some rice is coming in from the provinces and there has been no fighting since February 12. All is quiet at Manila. The heat is causing some inconvenience, but no casualties
have been reported.

CASTINE AT PORT SAID.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PORT SAID, Feb. 21.—The United States gunboat Castine has arrived here on her way to Manila to reinforce the fleet.

REGISTERED AS AGONCILLO.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

HALIFAX, (N. S.), Feb. 21.—The fact that the name of Agoncillo appears at the foot of the list of cabin passengers
on the steamer Labrador which sailed Liverpool this morning, it is confidently asserted that the chief agent of the Filipinos has left this country for Europe. As the first-class passengers for this steamer arrived on a night express and immediately embarked, no one is known to have established the identity of the passenger registered as Agoncillo.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—The world's record for seven and one-half furlongs was lowered one second
today by Dunois ridden by Jockey H.
Martin, and was favorite in the fifth race at the California Jockey Club track at Oakland. The former record for this distance was held by Mamie Scott, whose time was 1:33 1/4 with 90
pounds up, made on October 27, 1888,
over the old Bay District track.

Dunois, who is owned by T. H.
Ryan, is by Imp. Florist-Becky B. He carried 105 pounds and covered the distance in the remarkable time of 1:32 1/4.
The weather was fine, making the track fast. Results of the events were as follows:

Six furlongs, selling: Socialist, 106
(Macklin), 3 to 1, won; Two Cheers,
94 (McNichols), 6 to 1 second; Bliss
Rucker, 94 (Devlin), 5 to 1 third; time
1:15 1/4.

Seven furlongs, selling: Eddie Jones,
109 (Thorpe), 4 to 5, won; Meadow Lark, 104 (J. Powell), 20 to 1 second;
George H. Kitchman, 104 (Bullman), 9
to 5, third; time 1:28.

Eight furlongs, selling: Rosemaid, Bonito, Truxillo, Polish, Melkath, Bal-verso, Distinction and Merry Boy also ran.

REASON DETHRONED.

REBECCA CHANDLER, THEOSOPHIST, IN A PADDED CELL.

Tutor and Friend of the Late Col. Crocker, Who Pledged Aid and Support.

LIVED THE LIFE OF A HERMIT.

PILGRIM TO TAHITI TO STUDY THE DEPTHS OF THE CULT.

Death of the Magnate Defeated Her Plans—When Ready to Aid in Publishing a Book Her Mind Became a Blank.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Behind the insanity of Mrs. Rebecca Chandler, who was adjudged insane on Monday, and is now waiting in one of the jail's padded cells, to be committed to a private hospital, lies an interesting and romantic, albeit a somewhat mysterious, story. Mrs. Chandler was a student of theosophy, and from her correspondence it appears that through her efforts the late Col. Charles F. Crocker became interested in occult sciences shortly before his death, and that she had been in theosophy, with Mrs. Chandler as his tutor and friend.

It was Mrs. Chandler's mania that some one was trying to steal important papers in her possession. She complained frequently that the fourth of a flat, where she had lived, had retained the key to her apartment and were ransacking her rooms, for her precious documents. Whenever the afflicted woman went out she tied threads across her doors, and took all manner of precautions to keep out intruders. When she came in she invariably declared that the threads had been broken, and that her disordered papers showed some one had been meddling with her private affairs.

The secret of Mrs. Chandler's life, which seems to have been responsible for her insanity, is that she had been married at least in part, to her lost life, seems to have been shared with the late Col. Crocker. When she lived in Santa Monica, Col. Crocker was a frequent caller at her home, and there are letters among her effects which show their friendship dated back several years, and that the railroad magnate, who had been married to a woman, who lived a hermit's life, and whose intellect was the admiration of her friends.

While she was always eccentric and erratic, Mrs. Chandler was deeply learned in philosophy of life and had gone extensively into theosophy. It was the desire of her life to write a book and have her work published, concerning these matters. It is said by her friends that she impressed Col. Crocker so deeply by the brilliancy of her mind and by her conversational powers that he agreed to provide her with the means to write and publish. Relying upon this promise, it appears that Mrs. Chandler made arrangements, through Col. Crocker, to go to Tahiti, where she might be remote from the world and undisturbed. Some of her intimates who expected Col. Crocker to join her there on a tour around the world, but that his unexpected death put an end to these plans.

Mrs. Chandler heard in Tahiti of the death of her financial backer, and came home a few months later. To her attorney, who was written in Los Angeles she said the death of the railroad man had made a great difference in her plans, suspending indefinitely the publication of her book. Mrs. Chandler tried Eastern publishers, but the book was declared to be "Cavilar to the General" and was not published. In her extremity, Mrs. Chandler turned to the Crocker estate, claiming to have letters in which Col. Crocker had pledged her financial support.

His letters to her, written in his own hand, show that she was deeply interested in the mysterious life of Col. Chandler lover to talk. The Crocker estate acknowledged the justice of her claim, and was prepared to give her a liberal check to deliver Col. Crocker's letters that were in her possession. But she refused to accept the money and the effort to secure this money had left her in a state of mind, and tomorrow she will go to an asylum.

CRABB DIVORCE CASE.

Mrs. McClure Was on the Stand and Became Confused.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.] SAN JOSE, Feb. 21.—In the divorce suit of Rev. W. D. Crabb vs. Hattie Crabb, Mrs. McClure was on the stand today. She was given a severe cross-examination, and she became so confused in her testimony that she often contradicted herself. She had testified that Crabb told her he had written a paper, a confession, in which Mrs. Crabb had, He, Crabb, said that this paper would ruin him if he could not get it back. Under cross-examination, witness denied that she had told her this, but that she thought, but could not swear, that Crabb had talked to her about some paper he had written.

Witness confessed that she was living apart from her husband, he living with a daughter by a former marriage in San Francisco, while she lived in Gilroy. Witness said she could not visit that daughter, in the long examination of witness there was numerous conflicts in her testimony, and she often said she could not remember.

WEATHER AND CROPS.

Temperature Way Above the Normal. Damage by Frost.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—The following summary of the weather and crop conditions existing in California for the past week has been prepared by the Department of Agriculture:

Unusually high temperature prevailed during the latter part of the week, and the weekly mean was from 5 degrees to 13 degrees above the normal. No rain has fallen except a light shower at Eureka. Dry, north winds have retarded the growth of grain, and pastures are again becoming very scarce. Apricots and almonds are in full bloom, and peaches are beginning to blossom in some sections.

Frosts have not seriously injured deciduous fruits, and the prospects for large crops is generally good, though in some sections it is feared apricots will be a failure, owing to the drought of last season. Late reports from Southern California confirm those previously made as to damage to citrus fruits by frost. In portions of Ventura county young lemons were injured and many young trees killed.

Final With Elects Officers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—The grand lodge of district No. 4 of the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith today elected the following officers: Elie Sichel, Portland, President; Louis L. Solomon, First Vice-president; George Samuels, Second Vice-president; Benjamin Harris of Carson, Treasurer; (re-elected); Israel J. Aschheim, Secretary; (re-elected); Simon Hochstadt, Max Marcus and Julius Platschek, Trustees; (re-elected); Samuel Flyshaker, Sergeant-at-Arms; A. N. Levy, Messenger; Dr. S. Kahn, Chief Medical Examiner; J. Greenbaum, Ed. Tausky, Ed. Tausky, Sol Bloom and Marcus Rosenthal were chosen to constitute the court of district No. 4. The lodge, in committee of the whole, decided against optional endorsement.

Twins Almost a Miracle.

STOCKTON, Feb. 21.—Edward Kearney of Seattle, who well consider his escape from death last evening little less than miraculous. He left San Francisco for Stockton on the Capt. Weber. After being on the steamer for about an hour, he fell overboard, while unconscious from a fit or palpitation of the heart. He was picked up alive by the Mary Garratt, which followed along about half hour later, between the Brothers Lighthouse and Red Rock. He was unconscious most of the time while in the water, but when he came to he thought he had been taken to a hospital. He was shouting. He will recover. It was dark when he was picked up. He was coming to Stockton on a pleasure trip.

No More Rotten Hauls.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—The inspectors of bulk and grain in this city have received instructions from Washington to examine every vessel sailing from this port. The examination will be made at intervals, and only vessels of more than 700 tons will have to undergo the test. This regulation was brought about by the use of the many unseaworthy vessels which have been dispatched from Pacific Coast ports for the Klondike trade, many really rotten hulks being pressed into service for the cheap carriers demanded.

Nobody Knows the Dead.

SAN JOSE, Feb. 21.—The body of the man who killed himself Sunday remains at the morgue unidentified. There have been some intimations that it might be that of Arthur Neal, who is missing from San Francisco, but the coroner and police do not think so. It is evident that the man took every precaution to keep his identity hidden, and that he was not a local man, but a stranger who had come to the city for some purpose. He was about 40 years old, five feet ten inches tall and weighs 165 pounds.

Tried to End His Life.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—Silas Loewer, awaiting trial on two charges of burglary, attempted to end his life in his cell today. He removed a leather belt from his waist, fastened it about his neck and attached the ends to the bed and the wall, and then he lay on the floor with the belt tightly drawn around his neck. His stifled breathing attracted the attention of a cellmate and the man's life was saved.

Yard-Buller Divorce.

OAKLAND, Feb. 21.—The Superior Court of Alameda county has made an order directing that the deposition of Lord Churston and Dr. McKee of London and Walter Yard-Buller, now residing in Bulwary, Matabeland, South Africa, be taken in this court. The deposition was taken in London, and the proceedings instituted by attorneys representing Lady Yard-Buller. Lord Churston and Dr. McKee are the London solicitors of the defendant.

Released from Discrimination.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—Collector of the Port Jackson was notified today that the President had issued a proclamation to the effect that all ships and cargoes from Mexican ports arriving in the United States should be released from discrimination duties in return for a similar courtesy extended to American shipping by the republic of Mexico. The new rule is to take effect at once.

Inhaled Gas and Died.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—A man registered as R. Brown from Fresno committed suicide today at the Cosmopolitan Hotel. He connected a rubber tube with the gas tap, turned on the deadly fluid and inhaled it. He was about 40 years of age and apparently well to do. He had been in ill health. He arrived at the hotel on the 16th inst.

Fire Underwriters' Officers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—The Fire Underwriters' Association of the city elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Edward Niles; Vice-president, Frank P. Devin; Secretary-treasurer, Calvert; John T. Fogarty, Alfred B. Grim, Leslie A. Wright.

Darby Found not Guilty.

FRESNO, Feb. 21.—The third trial of Frank Darby, charged with the murder of Louis Boldini, was concluded today, the jury rendering a verdict of not guilty. It took Darby several minutes to realize the meaning of the verdict. He was then overwhelmed with the congratulations of his friends.

No Trace of Lieut. Neal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—No trace of Lieut. Neal, who absconded with $100,000 of the United States funds has been discovered. The transport Zealandia is due to arrive here from Manila. The captain about 163 passengers, most of whom are sick, discharged and convalescent soldiers.

Will Observe the Holiday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—Tomorrow Washington will observe a legal holiday. All the grain boards and exchanges in the East will be closed, and the produce exchange and callboards in this city will not be in session.

Schooner Enterprise Arrives.

SANTA CRUZ, Feb. 21.—The schooner Enterprise has arrived from Alaska with 200 sealskins aboard. She has a crew of Alaska Indians.

Coal Famine Looked For.

FORT WORTH (Tex.), Feb. 21.—The strike among the coal miners in the Indian Territory is no nearer a settlement and a coal famine is probable if the differences of the men and operators are not adjusted soon. A meeting will be held tomorrow, and an effort to effect a settlement will be made.

Recruit in Canada for England.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—In the House of Commons today the Secretary of War, George W. B. Robertson, in a question, said that the recruiting in Canada for the regular army of Great Britain was under consideration, and he was not prepared to say whether there were any obstacles to such a step on either side of the Atlantic.

BULLA'S MOVE.

(Dem.) 3, Alford (Dem.) 1, Kinney (Dem.) 1.

The Bulla forces held a caucus this morning to which Bulla offered to publicly release all who are voting for him that they might vote for any other person whom they chose. He thought it best to take up some other candidate. Bulla stated that while he should remain in the race, he would make a brief address before the joint assembly at which his supporters would be released from any obligations they may consider themselves to be under to him. When he had done so a man present would accept his offer and requested him not to commit himself, as they were determined to support him to the end, not that they were under any obligations to him, but because they considered him to be the best man of the several candidates for the Assembly. They told him that they did not think that he should make a sacrifice of himself at this time.

Grant's forces, also decided to stand by their candidate. They state that they are ready to hold a conference at any time.

SAN PEDRO HARBOR REPORT.

The Assembly Committee on Commerce and Navigation, which visited San Pedro Harbor to gather data which should enable them to pass intelligently upon the bill, has submitted its report to the Assembly. The bill amends the Political Code relating to the establishment of a Board of Harbor Commissioners for the port of Wilmington any Bay, San Pedro. The committee, according to existing laws, has a difference of opinion among the members relative to San Pedro regarding the matter and reported unfavorably on the measure.

The Assembly this afternoon sustained the Governor in his veto of Assembly Bill 213. This measure was intended to confer authority upon the governing body of San Pedro to levy taxes to provide for the erection of a municipal hospital.

Assembly Bill 214, authorizing the issuance of $1,000,000 for the extension of the San Francisco Bay Bridge, came up on third reading. It was amended, however, and sent back to the printer.

PASSED BY ASSEMBLY.

The Assembly during the day session passed Assembly bills 222, 249, 253, 617, 940, 128, 621, 416, 296 and 651, and Senate Bill 20.

Assembly Bill 222 was introduced by Rickard, and amends section 1142 of the Political Code relating to elections. Assembly Bill 249 was introduced by Dibble, and amends the Political Code relating to the election of a judge of the superior court.

Assembly Bill 249 makes it a felony for candidates for the Legislature to accept money from candidates for the United States Legislature for any Senatorial candidates to render assistance. Assembly Bill 128 was introduced by Atherton, and makes an appropriation for the erection of a ward for insane convicts at Folsom State Prison.

Assembly Bill 651 regulates the sale of crushed rock sent out from Folsom State Prison. By the terms of the bill the rock may be sold for either city streets or for private use. The measure is valued at 30 cents a ton. The measure is a substitute for Assembly Bill 691.

Assembly Bill 416 was introduced by Campbell, and amends section 1142 of the Political Code relating to the judicial committees of the Senate and Assembly. Assembly Bill 206 was introduced by Atherton, and authorizes the governor to appoint agents to collect from the United States the money advanced by the State of California for the rebellion of 1846.

Senate Bill 446 was introduced by Jones, and provides for a system of drainage for agricultural swamp and overgrown lands.

SENATE NIGHT SESSION. The Senate this evening passed Senate Bill 229, introduced by Prisk, providing for the disposal of money raised by cities or towns for public improvement, after the same had been completed and paid for.

Senate Bill No. 252, introduced by Maggard, was also passed. This measure provides for the appointment of a controller to appoint an additional clerk in his office, in addition to the number of clerks provided for by law, as the revenue clerk, and making an appropriation for the payment of his salary for the remainder of the fiscal year.

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE.

This, the natal day of George Washington, the Father of his Country, is and will ever be a day sacred in American history. The name of Washington, as the first President of the American republic, and as one of the great men who were chiefly instrumental in the attainment of our liberty and independence as a nation, is symbolic, not merely of our early struggles, but of our later greatness. When we shall cease to hold in reverent homage the name of Washington, we will have lost sight of the meanings of liberty, the significance of freedom, and the glory of independence.

The germ of human freedom sprang into vigorous life with the founding of our Union of States, and was nurtured and enriched by the precious blood spilled at Bunker Hill, and Lexington, and Saratoga, and on the high seas, in the defense of our newly-acquired liberties. It was the germ of a world-conquering idea—a principle vital to the welfare of the human race, and destined to work out its ultimate redemption. The great principles embodied in the immortal Declaration of Independence, and crystallized later in the Constitution of our Federation of States, has never ceased to grow and expand since our forefathers gave it force and vitality by the offering up of their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor upon the altar of their country's need. The leaves of the old, heroic, revolutionary days have slowly but steadily spread, not merely throughout our Union, but throughout the civilized world. It is still spreading; still influencing the thoughts of men; still educating the great masses of the human race to higher conceptions and nobler aspirations; still molding, molding, or controlling the policies of governments among men; still moving steadily and surely to the ultimate salvation of the human race as an entirety. This divine principle of human freedom was the inspiration and the fundamental incentive of our late war with Spain. It was our guiding of strength, our shield of protection, and our guiding influence throughout the vicissitudes of that struggle. Its influence is still felt in Cuba and Porto Rico and in the Philippines, in shaping the future of those lands. However dark and disheartening may be the present outlook, all will be well in the future, and the light of liberty will shine upon all the peoples who have been freed from the yoke of Spanish oppression. All the governments of the civilized world have been modified and liberalized by the superlative success of the American people in the experiment of self-government. And this modifying process is destined to go on and on until it embraces within the sphere of its beneficent influence all nations and all races of people that inhabit this earth.

It is well for us to remember—and, in fact, we must not forget—that in the early struggles of this now great republic, George Washington was a central, a commanding figure. Our forefathers might indeed have achieved their liberties without his aid—and they might not. This is a question which no man is competent to decide. But it is beyond all dispute that Washington was very largely instrumental in the achievement of our liberties and their preservation in the perilous early days of the republic. For this we honor and reverence his memory; and we shall continue to do while the republic endures.

The celebration of today, in Los Angeles and throughout the Union, is the observance of a sacred anniversary. And it is meet that the men who wore the blue, in the civil war, should join with those who wore the gray, in doing honor to the greatest American of his time. For the name and fame of Washington is the common heritage of every citizen of the republic, and shall ever be while the stars upon our flag shine "like torches immortal in the midnight sky."

ON THE DOING OF DUTY.

In his great speech at Forton, a few nights ago, our masterful President said many notable things that are worthy of remembrance, but in that address there was one passage on the doing of duty that is a powerful text and will bear dwelling upon. These are his words:

"It is sometimes hard to determine what is best to do, and the best thing to do is oftentimes the hardest. The prophet of evil would do nothing less than flinch at sacrifice and effort, and to do nothing is easiest and involves the least cost. On those who have things to do there rests a responsibility which is not on those who have no obligations as does. If the doubters were in a majority, there would, it is true, be no labor, no sacrifice, no anxiety and no burden raised or carried; no contribution from our ease and purse and comfort to the welfare of others, or even to the extension of our resources to the welfare of ourselves. There would be ease, but alas, there would be nothing done."

Our great President uses these expressions with reference to the momentous problem that confronts the American republic in the Far East where our gallant men at arms are falling dead in the thickets of a savage bullets, and sinking beneath the heat of a tropical sun in their efforts to carry the blessings of enlightenment, education and human freedom to an ignorant and misguided people, but the words he uses may be applied to all the affairs of life in which men are engaged—the everlasting struggle for the right against the wrong, for the good against the bad, for the kindly against the cruel, for the pure against the unclean, for the honest against the dishonest, for the manly against the ignoble, the corrupt and the vile.

It is easy to drift. It is easy to sit in the open boat, having cast away the oars, and let the craft move along with the current regardless of the rocks and the rapids that are to be encountered further down stream. It is a simple proposition to accept things as they are and let them go at that—much simpler, much more comfortable, much less taxing on the nerves than to rise up and fight, but God help us if all men should conclude to "let things go at that."

Take the political situation as it stands in California today. It would be easy, comfortable and comparatively pleasant to the men who have no political axes to grind, no personal interests to be subserved, no individual ambitions to gratify, to sit quiet and let Dan Burns elect himself to represent us in the United States Senate. It is easier to remain passive and "let things go" than to stand up for the right as one sees it and battle the matter out to a finish; of course it is, but the man who remains passive when danger threatens the nation, the State, or the people, is a poltroon, a coward, a dastard.

Especially do these remarks apply to public journals. In this age the honest newspaper speaks for the honest people of the land. It guards their interests as the father guards the home in which his little ones and their sweet and gracious mother slumber through the long watches of the night. It speaks their sentiments, it voices their protest against wrong and oppression, it is the medium through which they combat fraud, dishonesty, tyranny and all unrighteousness. The newspaper is the vidette at the outpost. It sounds the alarm when an enemy threatens, and should it sleep, the citadel is in danger. The brave newspaper, the honest journal of the people, is tireless, sleepless, alert and forever active against the hosts of fraud, and when it becomes otherwise the liberty of the people is threatened with disaster, for fraud is ever-active, it never rests, and it never sleeps.

The question has been asked, no doubt, again and again, why THE TIMES so strenuously opposes the election of unfit men to office. There are persons so narrow that they see in such opposition nothing but an exhibition of personal malice or an attempt to advance some one's personal interest as against some other personal interest, but nothing could be further from the truth. THE TIMES has no personal interest whatever in the success or defeat of any man now being balloted for at Sacramento. This newspaper has no personal feeling of animosity toward Daniel M. Burns or any other candidate, but as a public journal it has the same interest in the outcome of the contest that all good citizens, and good Republicans have—no more and no less.

Honestly believing that the election of Mr. Burns would discredit and dishonor the State of California and its people, for reasons which have been repeatedly stated in these columns, we cannot be content to drift with the tide, easy, pleasant and agreeable as it might be to "let things go." When there is a fight on against wrong, whether in politics or anything else in the world, the newspaper that is worthy the confidence and support of a brave, patriotic and intelligent people must stand fast and fight it out; that is where THE TIMES stands and where it will continue to stand so long as evil men or measures menace the interests of the State, jeopardize the welfare of the community, or threaten to debauch the political conscience of the people. And if that be journalism that merits the attacks of demagogues we will have to stand our share of the hammering.

There rests upon those who have things to do a responsibility which they cannot shirk if they be men who know the meaning of the word duty, and to none is given a heavier load than is laid upon the shoulders of the journalists who go straight forward for the right, no matter what may be the personal consequences. "Those who have no obligations as does" may sit in judgment, but it is the doers who must act as God gives them to see the right. Without faltering, without wavering, without turning aside, they cannot shirk the burden; and the honest teller of the press would not if he could. And so—Forward!

THEY ARE "ONTO" US.

That the true inwardness of the contest at Sacramento is getting "through the wool" of the people of the State is evinced by frequent comment in the California press. Here is a sample from the Oxnard Courier: "If Southern California loses the Senatorship, Los Angeles' political hogwash will be responsible for it. The remainder of this section of the State should bear this in mind at the next State Convention."

In the same article from which the above paragraph is quoted the Courier says: "We believe that the geographical situation of the State, creating as it does such diversified interests, demands one Senator from each extreme. Grant seemed to be the logical candidate, the only one in fact having any strength outside of his own immediate locality. We also believe that but for the dog-in-the-manger policy of Los Angeles, he would have been elected early in the session and the scandal mills at Sacramento would not have become a factor in the contest."

We have every reason to "suspect" that there will be a day of settlement for the men who have connived to prevent the election of a Senator from this section of the State, and that the people will know just who to settle with when the political "steamer day" comes around.

WHAT IT WOULD MEAN.

The election of D. M. Burns to the United States Senate would mean that the great State of California is willing to send as its representative to the highest legislative body of the land a man who has been indicted for the misappropriation of public funds, and who has been guilty of the basest ingratitude toward a man who had been his benefactor.

The election of D. M. Burns to the United States Senate, where he might be called upon to deal with matters relating to the republic of Mexico, would practically be an insult to that friendly country, in which Burns is regarded as a malefactor.

The election of D. M. Burns to the United States Senate would be a lesson to the growing generation in this State that honor, probity and character count as naught, in comparison with cynical impudence and political "pull."

The election of D. M. Burns to the United States Senate would mean final evidence that the Southern Pacific Company has California in its mercenary grasp, and can enforce its arrogant dictates against the wishes of 99 per cent of the population of the State.

The election of D. M. Burns to the United States Senate would mean that the Republican party in California could not hope to recover for many years.

For these, among other reasons which might be named, THE TIMES has and will maintain, with all the emphasis at its command, that so great a calamity as the election of D. M. Burns to the United States Senate must be prevented, at all hazards.

The application for a license, looking to the establishment of a saloon in close proximity to the home for newboys on San Pedro street has been laid over for one week. Why for a week only it is not easy to understand. Every good citizen knows that no further saloon licenses should be granted in the immediate neighborhood of the locality in which the good women of the Newsboys' Home Society are endeavoring to bring up a number of youthful waifs in the way they should go, and the application for such license should have been turned down, not for a week or a month, but for all time. Argument on a question of this sort is an idle occupation. The exercise of plain, ordinary common sense would, it would seem, be quite sufficient to give the scheme to establish another saloon in that quarter of the city its everlasting quist.

BULLA'S WITHDRAWAL.

If Mr. Bulla is in earnest in his effort to withdraw from the Senatorial contest he will have no difficulty in doing so. The way to withdraw is to withdraw. The ridiculous claim put forth by an evening sheet—which has a strong leaning toward Dan Burns though afraid to say so openly and above board—that Bulla's withdrawal will not simplify the situation, is on a par with its previous rattling around on the subject of the Senatorial election. The removal of Bulla from the contest will certainly simplify it that much. When he has taken himself off, other of the minor candidates will sooner or later be compelled to do the same thing by the force of public opinion, thus narrowing the contest down to reasonable limits. Had Mr. Bulla made his obedience and betaken himself from the platform a month ago he would have shown patriotism, good judgment and common sense, and if he does so now he will at least indicate that he has at last awakened to an understanding of the situation that everybody else in the State has had for many weeks—the knowledge that his election was never at any time a bare possibility. We trust Mr. Bulla will make his withdrawal so emphatic that all of Burns' horses and all of Burns' men cannot set humpty-dumpty up again.

An obscure twilight organ which is doing its feeble best to bolster up the hopeless cause of R. N. Bulla, attempt to place U. S. Grant in the same category as Dan Burns, as an unfit candidate for United States Senator. This is an insult to the Republicans, and to the people generally, of California. The unfitness of Burns is a matter of public notoriety and of official record. But no wrong-doing has been proved against Mr. Grant. Even the one-sided report of the legislative investigating committee, though obviously intended to injure Mr. Grant, was in reality an exoneration and a vindication of that gentleman as against any and all charges of corrupt practices; while the original report of the same committee (afterward amended upon the frantic appeals of Bulla) accused Bulla and his managers of a specific act of impropriety. The reasons set forth by the Bulla organ for the refusal of Bulla and his followers to join an anti-Burns caucus are in the last degree flimsy and untenable.

Mr. Bulla yesterday made an ostentatious pretense of "releasing" the little handful of men who have thus far seen fit to vote for him for United States Senator. It was an exceedingly cheap and tawdry play for the theatre effect. Mr. Bulla has no power to release his adherents, for the very good reason that he has no power to hold them. They are, and have been from the beginning, at liberty to leave him at any time after the first ballot. The county convention instructed our representatives in the Legislature to vote for a Southern California candidate for Senator to the last; but their instructions as to Mr. Bulla—secured only upon his earnest personal solicitation—were simply to vote for Bulla. After they had voted for him once, they had complied with their instructions on that point. His stay here, his pretense of "releasing" them will count for nothing; for, as he has no power to hold them, it follows logically that he has no power of release.

The first message of President Loubet to the National Assembly of France, submitted yesterday, is notable chiefly for the practical, common-sense views which it expresses on the troublesome questions now confronting the French people. It is evident that M. Loubet is a man of strong character, of cool judgment, and of undoubted courage. This is the sort of a man needed for the Presidency of the French republic at the present critical time. The new President, so far as we can judge from present indications, is likely to act as a peacemaker between opposing factions, rather than as an irritating influence. M. Loubet has before him a great problem and a great opportunity. It he shall succeed in solving the one and in realizing the highest possibilities of the other, his place will be secure among the immortals.

Bulla and his little coterie of adherents in the Legislature have thus far declined to accede to the proposition for the holding of an anti-Burns conference. This is evidence that they are not acting in good faith. If they were earnestly desirous of averting the possible calamity of Dan Burns' election, they would be willing to unite with the opponents of Burns upon any plan which would give promise of defeating that notoriously unfit candidate for Senatorial honors. The course which the small coterie of Bullaites are pursuing in this matter lends color to the charge which has heretofore been made, to the effect that they are in secret sympathy with the candidacy of Burns, and are merely using Bulla as a cat's paw with which to rake Burns' chestnuts out of the fire when an opportune moment arrives.

Col. Powell's description of the beef furnished the army is perhaps less concise than that of Gen. Miles, but it does not tend to create a craving for it. "It was," he says, speaking of the canned beef, "a stringy, unwholesome-looking mass, more like seaweed than anything else I can think of." The refrigerated beef he says "tasted as though it had come in contact with chloroform or kerosene." This raises the suspicion that the embalming fluid was adulterated with kerosene—a fraud within a fraud, as it were.

John Logan was appointed postmaster of Cross Roads, York county, Pa., sixty-four years ago, and is now dead, at the age of 88, having filled the office continuously from the time of his appointment to his death. There is a tradition abroad in the land to the effect that Federal office-holders never die. The falsity of the popular notion is conclusively proved by the case of Mr. Logan.

WASHINGTON.

A nation's homage on thy natal day

To thee in love we pay,

Our hero, Washington!

Thy life's appointed task was nobly done,

Thy battles bravely fought and victories won;

A power divine through thee

Wrought deeds whose farthest bound shall reach eternity.

To all mankind a world Columbus gave;

A noble deed and brave!

By destiny's decree,

The greater task was thine to make it free:

Nor did thy hero heart once shrink to see

The awful load of care,

That through long years of pain it must in silence bear.

And when that war was crowned with years of peace,

Nor yet thy toil did cease;

Not in a truer guise

Thy mind and heart appeared; thy counsel wise

Assisted then a new-born Nation rise

And with acknowledged worth,

Assume its place among the Nations of the earth.

Thy work is finished; and oblivious Night,

With dread, resistless might,

Through swiftly-passing years,

Has swallowed up thy cares and hopes and fears:

And yet from out that shadowy past appears

A radiance sublime—

The glory of the name, that shall not wane with time.

—S. E. COLEMAN.

effect that Federal office-holders never die. The falsity of the popular notion is conclusively proved by the case of Mr. Logan.

Senator Simpson has introduced, by request, a bill "to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday." It might now be in order for some legislator, who has the dignity of that body at heart, to introduce a bill to prevent the consumption of intoxicating liquors by Senator Simpson, on each day of the week, including Sunday.

Things are quieting down and business is being resumed at Iloilo. This is good news. Perhaps, now, we shall have an opportunity to find out the exact pronunciation of the name of the town, which will cause a feeling of general relief to permeate the North American continent.

A cold wave appears to hit the San Francisco Call's scheme to have an exposition held in the metropolis in 1901, for which the people of the State are to foot the bills. Some cold waves are welcome, and this is one of the welcome kind.

Should the Works anti-cartoon bill and the Morehouse signed-article bill become laws, California will usurp the place long held by Kansas as the State of fool statutes and fool legislators.

The worst thing about Chockfull Simpson is that he shows a tendency to gloat. He is certainly enough of a spectacle without making an attempt to shine as a gloater.

The way to break the deadlock is for the anti-Burns men to "get together." The people of California are anxiously waiting to see the "getting together" commence.

THAWING FROZEN PIPES.

Simple Electrical Device Discovered by Prof. Wood.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]

MADISON (Wis.), Feb. 21.—Prof. R. W. Wood, instructor in physics in the University of Wisconsin, has originated the idea of thawing out frozen water pipes with electricity, and has made two successful experiments. In view of the fact that water pipes in a number of cities of the Northwest are frozen at this time, his discovery, which is simple and inexpensive, is of great importance.

He takes the electric current used for street-lighting purposes, attaches one wire to the frozen pipe inside the cellar of one house and the other wire to a similar pipe in the adjoining or any other house, thus completing the circuit.

A current of about fifty volts is then turned on heating the pipes and melting the ice within.

Prof. Wood uses a transformer to reduce the voltage so that the current will not melt the pipes.

Brig.-Gen. Otis at Calococa.

[Oxnard Courier.] The appointment of Col. Harrison Gray Otis, editor and proprietor of the Los Angeles Times, as a brigadier-general of volunteers at the outbreak of the war with Spain, was one of the few made from civil life about which President McKinley had no doubts. He knew him well, had served with him in the Twenty-third Ohio during the civil war, had seen him under fire and had paid the highest tribute of praise to his personal bravery. Gen. Otis's friends at home knew that when the opportunity came he would not be found wanting or fail to make a record for himself and the men under him. He was sent to Manila and for a time it looked as though there would be little opportunity to perform more than routine duty. The foolish outbreak of the insurgents has shown that the army in the Orient is no less brave and its officers no less capable than those who served in Cuba and Porto Rico. It was at Calococa that Gen. Otis was given the opportunity to justify the faith of the President and of his friends. The place was fortified and held by a superior force, which resisted stubbornly, but the brilliant charge of Gen. Otis's brigade, consisting of the Twentieth Kansas, the Montana volunteers, eight companies of the Pennsylvania volunteers and four batteries of the Third regular artillery acting as infantry, swept all before it. The engagement at Calococa is considered one of the most important of the series of military incidents that have characterized the outbreak and demonstrated the superior fighting qualities of our troops.

WHERE SHAFER WAS.

Up from their camp at break of day. To "bill" San Juan and El Caney. Hearst's Jolly men both sprang forth—Those "yellow" men from the far-off North—Lighted the fire "neath the big paste can And hastily nourished the inner man. As they laid out their plans for work that day.

While Shafer was scarce five miles away.

"Well string a banner 'bout 'steen' feet high. From the cathedral tower to the azure sky." Said one "ambassador" of paste As he stirred the boiling pot with haste. "And we'll show these fellows a trick or two."

About blowing our horn for the journal "new."

Meanwhile out of the dim mist gray Marched Shafer's men, four miles away.

With imble hands they spread the paste. Over fence and trees and dead-end waste. Till the town looked as if a circus bill tract Had gone on a wild, hilarious "bust."

And scattered its wars with a lavish hand Over every foot of available land—And Shafer's lads smiled at their work that day.

Unheeding that Shafer was a mile away.

What need to tell of the general's wrath As his eye discovered the bill-poster's path—Of how his foot, in vigorous play, Brought pain to two of Hearst's men that day?

Better to think of the honors that came—Of the added luster of Old Glory's fame—Than to speak of the things that others say Happened when Shafer was miles away.

Then hurrah for the man behind the gun! Three cheers for the officers, every one! Hurrah for the "Jollies," hurrah for the "ars."

For every mother's son of Mars! Let us have to the millions of far-off Spain And the traitors who soon "forgot the Maine."

Such pleasures as come from the libelous thought That duty e'er called and found Shafer not.

GENERAL CELEBRATION.

EVENTS WHICH WILL MARK WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

Programme Will Continue for a Early This Morning Until Late at Night—Receptions, Campfires, Speaking and Banquet—Gen. Shafer to Participate.

As has already been stated, Los Angeles will very generally give itself over to a celebration of Washington's birthday today, and the events of interest to the public will continue throughout the day.

At 7:45 this morning Gen. W. R. Shafer will arrive from San Francisco and will proceed to the Westminister Hotel, where the day's events will begin in the form of a reception tendered him by the ladies of the Red Cross. The idea of tickets of admission has been abandoned, the public being invited to attend the reception, and it will be the only opportunity the ladies will have of meeting the commander of the American Expeditionary Force in Cuba. He will be accompanied at this reception by members of his staff. A musical programme will be presented in connection with the speaking program announced. The ladies of the Red Cross are asked to be at the hotel at 9:45.

Immediately after the reception, the parade will form on Main street, head of column resting on Fifth street. The first division will form on east side of Main street, north of Fifth, head of column on Fifth; second division on west side of Main street north of Fifth. The column will form left in front and counter march. The line of march will be north on Spring street to Court, south on Spring street to Fifth, west on Fifth street to Hazard's Pavilion.

All visiting ex-soldiers of the Blue or the Gray are invited to fall in with any of the organizations.

The formation of the procession will be as previously announced. On the arrival of the procession at the pavilion, a reception will be tendered Gen. Shafer by the Blue and the Gray, when refreshments will be served, following which the afternoon will be devoted to speaking, music and general enjoyment.

During the evening Gen. Shafer and staff will be guests of the Chamber of Commerce at the annual banquet of that organization. It is believed that 200 people will participate in the delights of the banquet, and the hall is being beautifully decorated for the occasion. An every preparation made to make it an event of especial pleasure. There will be but few responses to toasts, but by the presence of some of the best speakers in the city.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

The postoffice and sub-stations will all be closed after noon and the mail carriers will make only their morning rounds.

The schools will be closed through the day. During the past few days many of them have held special exercises in memory of Washington, and a number of cases new flags having been unfurled.

The railroads have made special rates into the city from neighboring towns, and it is believed that a large number of people will be in from the interior.

At the South Pasadena Ostrich Farm the annual plucking of birds will be begun. The rooms of the Chamber of Commerce will be open during the forenoon for the accommodation of members who desire to obtain tickets to the ostrich farm.

Free Harbor Jubilee Meeting.

Four float design suggestions were shown to the Night Parade and Float committees of the Free Harbor Jubilee at their meeting held in the rooms of the committee on South Spring street, yesterday afternoon. All the designs were submitted by A. Petch. One represented a battleship and another the Western Hemisphere, with a ship sailing from the Atlantic to the Pacific via the Nicaragua Canal above symbolic figures representing China, the Philippines, commerce and the American navy. Another represented the completed harbor at San Pedro, with many merchantmen at anchor in the breakwater. The Executive Committee of the jubilee will meet tomorrow to hear reports from the sub-committees.

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, Feb. 21.—(Reported by George E. Franklin, Local Forecast Official.) At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 29.96; at 5 p.m., 29.92. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 59 deg. and 54 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 100 per cent.; 5 p.m., 94 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., south, velocity 2 miles; 5 p.m., west, velocity 8 miles. Maximum temperature, 68 deg.; minimum temperature, 46 deg. Barometer reduced to sea level.

DRY BULB TEMPERATURE.

Los Angeles 59 San Francisco 56
San Diego 54 Portland 42

Weather Conditions.—Generally fair weather prevails on the Pacific Slope this morning, except in the vicinity of the Columbia River, where rain is falling. A slight rise in temperature in Washington and Oregon, and a fall ranging from 2 to 12 deg. in California. It is considerably cooler east of the mountains, and freezing weather prevails to the Missouri Valley. A special report from the Chief of the Weather Bureau states that a cold wave is probable in Northern Nebraska, where the temperature will fall to zero by Wednesday morning.

Forecast.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Generally fair tonight and Wednesday, except fog or low clouds tonight; no material change in temperature.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21, 5 a.m.—Weather conditions and general forecast: The following are the seasonal rainfalls to date, as compared with those of same date last season, and rainfall in the last twenty-four hours:

Stations—Last twenty-four hours season season.
Eureka 1.36 24.1
Red Bluff 1.36 24.1
Sacramento 1.36 24.1
San Francisco 1.36 24.1
Fresno 1.36 24.1
San Luis Obispo 1.36 24.1
Los Angeles 1.36 24.1
San Diego 1.36 24.1
Yuma 1.36 24.1

San Francisco data: minimum temperature, 67 deg.; maximum, 54 deg.; mean, 59 deg.

An area of high pressure still remains central off the coast of Washington and Oregon, from which section the pressure diminishes toward Arizona and Southern California.

Fair weather still continues in California. There are some slight indications of increasing cloudiness and cooler weather in Northern California Wednesday night.

Forecast made at San Francisco for thirty hours, ending midnight, February 22:
For Northern California: Fair Wednesday; cooler in northeastern portion; fresh north wind.

For Southern California: Fair Wednesday; fresh north to west wind.

Arizona: Fair Wednesday.

San Francisco and vicinity: Fair Wednesday; fresh north to brisk west winds.

Special report from Mt. Tamalpais: Clear; northwest wind, velocity 6 miles; maximum temperature, 64 deg.; current, 60.

Weekly Crop Bulletin.—The week closing February 20 was unusually warm for the season. Drying land winds prevailed to a considerable extent, and on the 18th inst. a "norther," accompanied by a heavy rain and storm, occurred in the eastern sections. There was no precipitation from rain in any section, but considerable fog resulted in the early part of the week. In some of the coast sections, but this was offset toward the close of the week by drying land winds. Almonds are in full bloom in the foothills and they are beginning to blossom in the valley lands. Apricots and early cherries are also starting to bloom. There is danger in the early blooming of these fruits, as should frosts follow much damage is likely to result. Grain and grass are growing well, considering the dry weather, but rain is badly needed as this is the critical time in the growth of these crops, and unless they receive a fair supply of moisture soon, they will suffer.

Except in the extreme southern sections, the late cold weather and heavy frost seriously damaged lemons; the small fruit and blossoms were destroyed. In some sections oranges were injured to a greater extent than at first reported.

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

The women of Los Angeles are hereby reminded that Gen. Shafter made way faces after being subjected to the Hobsonizing process some weeks ago.

The fact that the sand was blown off from the top of the Santa Fe road south of Anaheim a few days ago would seem to indicate that a "Santa Ana" was at large in that vicinity.

Capt. Merry of Huemene recently found a lobster in the Point Magu lagoon, and now the people of Ventura county are entertaining dreams and visions of home-made lobster salad in the near future.

Instead of arousing the town by the blowing of whistles by the police when a child is found, how would it be for the parents to telephone to police headquarters and inquire after their offspring when it is lost?

The Landmarks Club excursion to the San Juan Capistrano Mission will take place today. It will afford an opportunity to visit this exceptionally interesting ruin at small expense, and ought to be well patronized, both on account of the pleasure it will afford and because the club deserves encouragement in its work.

It is a lamentable fact that the man who developed the seedless orange is now, at 80 years of age, without means sufficient to furnish him with the necessities of life and is a ward of Riverside county. While other men have grown wealthy in consequence of his labor, Luther C. Tibbets has become a pauper. A fund is being raised in Riverside to be used in making his last days more comfortable. It ought to be made a liberal one.

Today there is to be a plucking of ostriches at the Ostrich Farm in South Pasadena, and the members of the Chamber of Commerce have been invited to attend the performance. The term "plucking" is a misnomer, in reference to the large plumes from the wing of the ostrich. These plumes are cut off when "ripe." To pluck them out would injure the birds and be very painful. The raising of ostriches in Southern California promises, before long, to become quite an important addition to our rural industries.

The driving of the golden spike which signified the completion of the Gila Valley, Globe and Northern Railroad having been performed, and the new road being in operation, Globe, Ariz., finds itself embarrassed by a lack of hotel accommodations for its visitors. And this embarrassment will increase if the hotel accommodations are not supplied, for the new railroad and the development of the mineral and other resources of Gila county that will now follow will bring a constantly increasing number of persons to Globe. That town must get ready to grow.

Pensions for Californians.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Pensions were granted to Californians today as follows:
Original—Wallace Baldwin, Vallejo, 85; James Miller, (deceased) Artesia, 85; Henry Dodge, San Diego, 86.
Original widows, etc.—Eliza J. Miller, Artesia, 85.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Not Feasible to Combine Jubilee and N.E.A. Convention.

At the meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon J. B. Hawley, civil and mining engineer and assayer; C. W. Freeman, attorney-at-law; William F. Jack, capitalist; Knippenberg & Fryman, collections, real estate and insurance, were elected to membership of the chamber.

The president, appointed the following additional standing committees for the ensuing year:

Lands—D. M. McGarry, chairman; Jacob Loew, Carl F. Rosecrans, F. Saubich, W. C. B. Richardson.

Railway and Transportation—Ferd K. Rule, chairman; Hancock Banning, W. M. Garland, John H. Norton, Fred W. Wood.

County and Municipal Affairs—Will A. Harris, chairman; L. A. Groff, S. O. Houghton, Godfrey Holterhoff, Jr., A. Kinney.

Grievances—Robert McGarvin, chairman; Bert Estes Howard, R. N. Bulla, F. W. King, M. committee.

The special committee having in charge the matter of the Merchants and Manufacturers' suggestion for the joint observance of the Free Trade Jubilee and the National Educational Convention, reported as follows:

"Your committee recognize the laudable desire of this association commercial body to minimize the expense by consolidating the two events above referred to, and it is apparent that the suggestion is made on their part without any desire to detract from the prime importance of fittingly celebrating the beginning of work upon the San Pedro Harbor, but solely to avoid, if possible, an unnecessary demand for funds upon that comparatively limited number of liberal business men and citizens who usually respond upon such occasions with generous contributions.

"Upon careful consideration of the characteristic features of the two enterprises, your committee is impressed with the utter hopelessness of combining the two in one harmonious celebration. The National Educational Convention comes within the jurisdiction and control of the National Educational Association, and is for that reason quite beyond manipulation by local influences; whereas, the celebration of the San Pedro Harbor opening is distinctly and completely under local control. Any attempt to combine the two would lead to great confusion and would undoubtedly result unsatisfactorily to the participants of both movements.

"The close proximity of the two celebrations should not, in the estimation of your committee, depreciate the great importance of each. Each event is of incalculable value to Southern California, all speculation as to the relative value of each being idle and profitless when measured by the efforts already expended in making them possible and the beneficial results to issue therefrom.

Your committee are impressed with the importance of providing a fitting celebration in commemoration of both these events, and acting upon this impulse, we would respectfully recommend that this chamber heartily endorse both movements and approve the proposed action of having them separate and distinct in their fulfillment."

A communication from Prof. Edward T. Pierce, president of the State Normal School, inviting the board to visit the school, was accepted, and Wednesday, March 1, was the day selected upon which to make the visit.

RIFLE CONTEST.

Teams Lined Up for Sharpshooters' Team Match.

The rifle match arranged by the Los Angeles Sharpshooters begins this morning at the Turners' range near Eastlake Park. The teams representing the Los Angeles Sharpshooters will be as follows: Leighton, Canet, Kelly, McPherson, Freeman, Flood, Nordholdt, Finel, Hughes and Wellcome, with Wood and Wilson as substitutes.

Wescott, one of the best shots in the company, was to have been a member of the team, but he is also a member of the Turn Verein, and as the Turners had difficulty in making up a team without him, the Sharpshooters consented to his enrollment among their competitors. Wescott is a remarkably steady shot, and the loss of him weakens the Sharpshooters' team and gives the Turners quite an advantage.

The police team is in difficulties. Its members will be out on parade in the morning and do not know when they may be released from duty. If they can get to the range in the afternoon, however, they will shoot their score in the team match.

The Azusa team, which is always ready for friendly competition, will or may be present in full strength. Azusa has defeated Los Angeles twice and been beaten once, and is ready for another try at the game.

The match is for sport, not for money or prizes, and there is nothing to be won but the satisfaction of doing one's best.

NEW METHODIST CHURCHES.

Sale of Broadway Property Enables This Erection.

Two new Methodist churches will soon be erected in Los Angeles as a result of the sale of the First Methodist Church property on South Broadway. The new First Church will be built on the corner of Sixth and Hill streets, diagonally across from the First Congregational church. It is to cost between $50,000 and $60,000, and the lot upon which it is to be erected is valued at $50,000.

The old property on South Broadway has been purchased by Homer Laughlin, representing an eastern capitalist. Nearly $62,000 will be realized from the transfer, the terms of which permit the occupation of the present church until another can be built. The Simpson Tabernacle, occupied by the First Congregation, will be rebuilt at a cost of $20,000, $10,000 of which is a donation by the First Church, from the proceeds of the sale of the Broadway edifice and lot. The new church for the Westlake congregation will be built at the corner of Eighth street and Burlington avenue, in a rapidly-growing part of the city.

Work on the new buildings will be commenced early next month. The new First Church is expected to be one of the finest houses of worship on the coast. It is believed that this business block will replace the old First Church, which is to be moved off of the South Broadway lot by the 1st of October.

Every Tooth That Aches

Is more pained against than sinning. Yes, it is. And, in the very fitness of things, perhaps that's why it aches. It makes the punishment fit the crime of tooth neglect. Just take counsel from the fact that great toothaches from little cavities grow—and from the fact that I fill tooth cavities, preventing toothache; can often save aching teeth in the same way for years of future usefulness; and can always end the earthly aches of teeth that can't be saved by extracting them by easy modern methods without pain.

Chung Dak Found Guilty of Beating a Countryman

Chung Dak, a Chinese with a face and a comfortably returned was taken in on Monday. One yesterday on the charge of assault with intent to murder of Gong Nuey.

The prosecuting witness is a Chinese, a native of the same town as the defendant in Chinatown. He was seen a pipe and dreaming of his dreams in a room behind the door when Chung Dak interrupted eries by hitting him over the head with a hatchet. A struggle ensued, and the alarm being given by a Chinaman in the store blowing a police whistle. Officer Phillips appeared upon the scene and arrested the defendant. Upon being taken outside one of the bystanders approached Chung Dak, but he replied with indifference: "I chopping wood." Some one ventured to remark that he was slightly mistaken, and that he had carved a fellow-countryman. "I no care if I hang," he replied. "I kill fifty more." Afterward Chung Dak explained that he had been sick and Chung Gong Nuey had refused to help him.

The jury was out about an hour, and then returned into court with a verdict of guilty. Sentence will be passed on Thursday.

The complaint provides, too, that before taking possession of property for street purposes, and this, it is alleged, has not been done.

PETITION FOR LETTERS. Abraham Heslop yesterday petitioned the court for letters of administration in the estate of Joseph Heslop, deceased, who died on January 3, 1899, leaving an estate valued at $500.

LEAVE TO SELL. The directors of the Catalina Yacht Club have petitioned for leave to sell certain land at Terminal Island. The club house was undermined by the recent high tides, and the house injured to the extent of $600. The total indebtedness of the club is about $2100.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE. The National Bank of California has brought suit against T. E. Langley to recover $125 on certain bills of exchange.

ON A CONTRACT. E. M. Duran has begun suit against the Southern Pacific Company to recover $325.87, paid by plaintiff on a certain contract for purchase of lands to which the defendant was to give title, and failed.

A FRUIT CONTRACT. The suit of the Rudeck Company against F. R. Johnson, T. P. Carroll et al., for an alleged violation of contract came to trial before Judge Shaw yesterday. It was contended that the defendants agreed to purchase a certain quantity of peaches from the plaintiff company, and afterwards repudiated the contract. There was evidence of the fact that the fruit was not up to the standard agreed upon.

ONLY TEMPORARILY INSANE. John Johnson, the seaman who gashed his throat shortly before arriving at San Pedro on the ship Comet, two days ago, was examined by Judge Allen yesterday. It was shown that Johnson was so crazed that he cut his throat and then jumped overboard, when a boat was lowered he refused to seize the rope thrown to him, and had to be forcibly hauled into the boat. Upon arriving in port the throat was sewed up and he became again quite rational at the County Hospital. Johnson acknowledged being a very heavy drinker, but it was not shown that he had had access to liquor during the ship's run down from Port Gamble to San Pedro. He was ordered discharged from custody.

LITERATURE FOR PRISONERS.

Mr. Moody's Farewell Sermon at Hazard's Pavilion.

Another crowd gathered at Hazard's Pavilion yesterday afternoon to hear Evangelist Moody's farewell sermon. They really received an unexpected double portion, for after Prof. Towler had favored them with two sermons Mr. Moody announced that he wished every one present to respond to the appeal for a free will offering to supply prisoners with suitable literature. To get those present in a generous mood the evangelist favored them with the first talk. He was interfused with the spirit that he expected every one present to give something; if they had not come prepared with the necessary coin to borrow, and should they fail in this with their neighbors he would lend them the money. He related several incidents in his career to show the necessity for such literature, and the good that had resulted from placing sufficient quantities in the hands of convicts. Mr. Moody himself went among the crowd on the rounds of request for each one who failed to respond he put a coin in the hat.

The theme of the discourse was that God would punish every man according to his work, and the first sign of any one backsliding was neglect of the Bible. When a man neglects the Bible he begins to criticize and to omit parts, accept some and eliminate those that do not harmonize with his inclinations. The very things that he overlooks are what Jesus sanctified, and as Jesus held up the brazen serpent to the dying Jews that they might be saved, by them must men be saved.

After dwelling on the fact that the churches followed the lead of the people and were inclined to be hypocritical; that the popular preacher was the creator, and men who told the people what they wanted to hear and not religion. Mr. Moody made his application in the statement, that nothing would quicken the church like preaching Christ, for no one but He could keep the fire burning on the altar.

Mr. Moody announced before the benediction that at the urgent request of the Los Angeles ministry, he would return next Sunday and on that day hold two more meetings, in the afternoon to women and to men in the evening.

Woman's Club Celebration.

The Woman's Club of the Stimson-Lafayette Industrial Association held a patriotic celebration at the school hall last evening in honor of Washington's birthday. The feature of the programme was an address by Byron Oliver suitable to the occasion, and in addition there were several vocal selections by Miss Jessie Goodwin, Miss Ella E. Clark presiding.

STRUCK A GUSHER.

FLOWING OIL DELUGING WILEY CANYON.

Petroleum Spouting Seventy Feet High from a Deep Well—Building a Dam to Save the Oil—Estimated at One Thousand Barrels a Day.

The first flowing oil well of any considerable volume in Southern California was developed last Saturday in Wiley Canyon, four miles from Newhall, in the Pacific Coast Oil Company's well number 12. The well is 1400 feet deep, with 6-inch casing. Last Saturday it began spouting oil under strong gas pressure, throwing oil in spray 70 feet high and deluging the roofs of buildings in the vicinity. The product of the well is green oil of 26 gravity.

The flow is so great that the drillers are unable to control it, and a great stream of oil is running down the cañon. Forty men are at work building a dam to save the oil in a reservoir, sufficient tankage not being on the ground.

No estimate of the volume of the flow has been made, but an old driller who saw the stream guesses that it may be 1000 barrels a day or possibly more. In the East, flowing wells are numerous, and when they flow from 30 to 90 days and then subside. How long this new well will yield without pumping cannot be foretold, as no similar flow of oil has been struck heretofore in the Southern California fields.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Commences Its Second Session at Simpson Tabernacle.

The Epworth League Assembly and School of Methods commenced its second annual session last evening at the Simpson Tabernacle with a musical programme, which, though it was entertaining and gave one an opportunity to see and hear some of the best known of the season's future participants, was not exactly in line with what is to follow. The executive committee have spared no trouble to get the best talent for their assembly, and have been uniformly fortunate in having these accept who were asked to take part. The first night's programme was well arranged and the names it contained are well known to Los Angeles audiences. Professors E. O. Excell and Charles H. Gabriel are composers of religious songs whose names appear in every collection of modern hymnals, and being gifted with fine voices they know best how to demonstrate the melody of their creations.

Miss Beresford Joy is not unknown to local audiences. Her first number, "Blessed," was a rather trying position, as she had to respond to two encores. Miss Joy has a fine contralto voice, and is one of the few who can sing with distinctness the dulcet melody of modern hymns. Fred C. Gottschalk demonstrated that she had all the requisites of a good player, and the audience expressed its appreciation of her playing by calling her back twice. Mrs. Addie Murphy Grigg was prevented by illness from delivering her two readings, and Miss Ida Leonard assumed the rather trying position of taking her place. She recited Kipling's "Recessional," the "Agnus Dei," and for an encore "Budge's Ideas of the Flood."

At 8:15 this morning the instructive part of the session begins. There will be an address by Bishop Carman of Toronto, a school of the English Bible will be conducted by the Rev. Homer Stuntz, D.D., and Mrs. Annie E. Smiley will conduct the Junior Epworth League in the afternoon.

The session will continue to and including next Friday with all day sessions.

Work for the Children.

Field workers of the Children's Home Society of California made their reports at the regular quarterly meeting of that organization in the parlors of the Young Men's Christian Association yesterday morning. The report made by Superintendent Rev. O. V. Rice was the most important. He reported satisfactory progress, but said that the threatened drought had made it difficult to find homes for the boys. The superintendent recommended changing the form of the society's publication, to assure its success, but action on this matter was postponed until the next meeting. No work is being done by the society north of Hanford, except in answer to special calls.

Anaemia

Is a disease met with among young men principally. It is very common and is a forerunner of consumption. It is a disease of the blood. There is only a small quantity of blood in the system and it is of a poor quality. The symptoms of the disease are quite numerous. They are readily discerned. If the progress of the disease is not checked death from consumption or some other disease is inevitable. HUDYAN will check its progress. HUDYAN will enrich the blood and make the patient strong. HUDYAN is for women as well as men. HUDYAN is a vegetable remedy and it is harmless.

In its effect it contains no iron to cause the teeth to decay. If you are suffering you should take HUDYAN now, and then note the change in your condition. Study your symptoms carefully. These are your symptoms. Take HUDYAN now and they will disappear.

Your Symptoms Are:

1. CONSTANT HEADACHE. The feeling is as though the head were going to burst from too much pressure. HUDYAN, by its action on the blood, will equalize the circulation of blood—the headache will disappear.

2. SUNKEN EYEBALLS AND DARK CIRCLES UNDER THE EYES. HUDYAN will cause the blood to disappear and make your eyes bright.

3. PALE CHECKS from the poor quality of the blood. HUDYAN will enrich the blood and cause the cheeks to become rosy and the skin to improve.

4. WEAKNESS IN THE HEART. This is the most pronounced symptom. The heart becomes weak and there is a constant sinking feeling around it. HUDYAN will make the heart strong and cause it to beat regularly, and the sinking feeling will disappear.

5. FEELING OF WEIGHT IN THE STOMACH AND INDIGESTION. This is due to the fact that the food in the stomach is not acted upon by healthy blood. HUDYAN will cause the food to be properly digested, improve the appetite and relieve the constipation.

HUDYAN will remove these symptoms and make you well. HUDYAN is for you. It is for men and women. You should begin the use of HUDYAN now. Have your health restored. HUDYAN will restore the color to your cheeks and relieve the pains in your back. The functions of Nature will be properly performed and you will be cured. After you are cured, tell other women about HUDYAN. HUDYAN has done for you. There are many other sufferers and they also wish to be cured. HUDYAN can be procured of druggists for 50c per package or 6 packages for $2.50. If your druggist does not keep it, send direct to the HUDYAN Remedy Co., Los Angeles or San Francisco, Cal. Call upon the HUDYAN doctors. Consultation is free. You may call upon the doctors or write, as you desire. Address:

The Vandergrift Rotary Washer is superior to any we have ever seen. It is light running, well made and finished and does perfect work.

Closes Tight, Preventing the Escape of Steam and Retaining the Heat in the Water.

The Vandergrift Rotary is so arranged that by turning the large balance wheel in one direction the dasher inside the machine reverses or rotates in opposite directions, thereby giving the best possible results. The large balance or fly wheel (weighing seventeen pounds) is a great help in causing the Washer to turn easily, and can be quickly removed when desired.

When using the washer IT IS VERY NECESSARY TO KEEP IT TWO-THIRDS FULL OF GOOD SUDS, AND CLOTHES TO THE AMOUNT OF FIVE OR SIX SHIRTS. If these instructions are followed and the machine does not work as represented and entirely satisfactory, we will take it back and refund the amount paid.

PASADENA.

WOOSTER PROPERTY BONDED FOR AN EIGHT STORY HOTEL.

Plans of C. H. Cady and his Michigan Syndicate for a $500,000

Hotel and Roof Garden-Bur-

dette's Engagement to Mrs.

Baker-Matters Before Council.

PASADENA, Feb. 21.-[Regular Correspondence.] A stir was caused in real-estate

circles today by the bonding of the Wooster

Circle property on Green street and Fair

Oaks avenue, by the representative of a Michigan syndicate, who have in view the erection of a $500,000 hotel in Pasadena. The gentlemen representing them is C. H. Cady of Michigan, who has been looking around Pasadena for several weeks. The bond runs to him and covers "the east-eighty-four feet of lots 12 to 17 of Wooster's subdivision," the price set being $75,000, and the time of the bond extending to April 1.

Mr. Cady says the plan is to erect a hotel

eight stories high with a roof garden having

many attractions such as apartment to similar institutions in other cities, and to run it on the European plan. The gentlemen associated with him, he says, have ample capital and a firm faith in a great future. The tourist business here, he says, is a stranger here and his scheme will occasion

considerable surprise, but the fact that he has secured an option on this valuable property, exactly opposite Hotel Green, and the papers have been signed, and the fact that he

WOMAN HURT BY A FALL.

Margaret Traynor is Severely Injured on Broadway.

Margaret Traynor, a saleswoman in the employ of the J. M. Hale Company, sustained a severe injury of her right hip by falling on the new Broadway street car tracks at the corner of Third street at 1:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She was carried into Yerxa's grocery store, where, after being attended by Dr. Bayless she was removed in a carriage to her home, No. 1418 Bellevue avenue.

With Rosa Gordon, also an employee of the J. M. Hale Company's store, Miss Traynor was returning to her work from lunch. In crossing the tracks, which had been laid in an excavation several inches below the level of the pavement, she tripped over one of the rails and fell upon the ties. She was apparently very little injured, but when she attempted to rise, found that she was powerless to stand. She raised herself on one arm and then fell back in a faint. Several men who had seen the young woman fall carried her to Yerxa's. She is a daughter of Joseph A. Traynor, a gripman on the Temple-street table railway.

Homeless Boy and a Wheel.

James Collarsen, a youth who says he has no father, mother or home, was tried yesterday before Justice Austin and a jury on a charge of stealing a bicycle belonging to E. G. Taylor, on February 10. On February 11 the boy was arrested at San Fernando with the bicycle, saying he was on his way to San Francisco, and was returned to this city on February 12. He claimed that he found the wheel in the river, leaning against the bank. The jury found the boy not guilty of stealing the wheel, but recommended that the court give him a severe reprimand for not returning it. As the boy has no home, Justice Austin ordered that he be taken care of at the City Jail until arrangements can be made for having him committed to Whittier, or placed where he will be taken care of.

H. B. Ainsworth's Relatives.

The Ainsworths who were injured in a roaching accident at Hayward, as stated in an Oakland dispatch printed in yesterday's Times, are relatives, though not members of the immediate family of Secretary H. B. Ainsworth of the Redondo Beach Company. Among those who were injured were Mrs. George J. Ainsworth, sister-in-law of Mr. Ainsworth, her son Lawrence and daughter Mabel. The mother and daughters were badly bruised and one of the young man's arms was broken. All three are of Portland, Or.

Local Committee Making Satisfactory Progress.

The regular weekly meeting of the local Executive Committee of the N.E.A. was held in the directors' room of the Chamber of Commerce last evening. Gen. John R. Mathews, chairman of the Committee on Halls, reported that his committee had secured options on twelve three-halls churches, which have a combined seating capacity of 23,500. Mr. Mathews stated that the majority of the halls, as well as churches, had been tendered free of charge.

The committee accepted the halls offered, and requested Mr. Mathews to tender the board's thanks.

C. B. Boothe, chairman of the Committee on Railways and Excursions, reported that the Pacific Coast steamship companies had made a special N.E.A. rate of one and one-half fare for the round trip.

C. C. Davis, chairman of the Committee on Printing and Badges, reported that many designs had been received, but it was decided to defer the final selection for one week.

Chairman Anderson of the Committee on Hotels, reported that the committee authorize the issuance of a hotel guide.

Chairman Charles Silent of the Finance Committee reported that donations were being made by merchants and others.

Secretary Wiggins reported that during the week the local N.E.A. bureau of information had sent out 250 letters to leading newspapers in the State, stating their aims and outlining the work of the local organization to date.

JURY DISAGREED.

Could Not Determine Whether Lulu Was a Vagrant or Not.

Lulu Patterson, the young girl who tried to commit suicide by taking laudanum early on the morning of January 23, but was pumped out at the Receiving Hospital in time to save her life, was tried for vagrancy yesterday before Justice Morgan and a jury, which was unable to arrive at a verdict.

At the trial yesterday it developed that the girl had occupied a crib on Alameda street for four nights previous to her attempt at suicide, and that after she was discharged from the Receiving Hospital she secured a room at the National Hotel, formerly the Pico House, alleging that she was waiting to hear from her mother, who was going to him at Klamath Falls, Or.

On the night of January 23, one Koch, a watchman employed by the Chinese, went to her room, where he found her in bed. He induced her to dress and go with him to Chinatown, where he turned her over to a Policeman. March, alleging that she had made another attempt on her life and needed medical attention.

Policeman Madden sent her to the City Jail. Nothing was said about her being in need of medical attention, and nothing of the kind was required, but she was kept in jail until February 6, when any charge being placed against her. On that date she got word to Attorney LeCompte Davis that she was in jail and didn't know what she was there for. The same afternoon she was taken into court and charged with vagrancy. Her trial was set for yesterday by Justice Morgan and she was released on bond.

She went to her grandmother at Downey, where she has remained ever since. The girl's father, in writing to Humane Officer Clark concerning her, promised to send for her soon.

ALFORD ABRAIGNED.
His Examination Set for Next Friday Morning.

William Alford, who shot Jay E. Hunter last Saturday afternoon in the hallway of the Stimson hotel, from the effects of which Hunter died on Sunday at the California Hospital, was arraigned before Justice Morgan yesterday forenoon on a charge of murder, the complaint being sworn to by Policeman J. H. McGraw.

Alford appeared in court with his head swathed in bandages, and was still quite weak from the clubbing he had received. He was pale but cheerful, and made no impression on the audience in the court room. He is a small man and frail-looking, while Hunter was a large, athletic man, and a good impression on the jury.

Attorney Earl Rogers appeared for the defendant and asked that the preliminary examination be set for as early a date as possible. Justice Morgan, therefore, set the examination for next Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Attorney Rogers notified the court that Paul Barker had been entered as associate counsel for defense. It is probable that the preliminary examination will occupy at least two days.

VISIT THE NORMAL SCHOOL.
Three Legislators Look into Request for an Appropriation.

A special legislative committee of three Assemblymen visited the Normal School Monday and yesterday to look into the advisability of granting an appropriation of $30,000 to aid the institution in increasing its facilities for work.

The legislators, who were from San Francisco, Sacramento and Tulare, respectively, were very much pleased with the Normal School, and the work it is doing. They spent several hours in visiting the various departments.

The appropriation has been asked by the trustees to be used in adding rooms to the training school, department for arranging a room under the gymnasium for manual training purposes, and to build a new library. If the appropriation as asked for is cut down, the library will be dispensed with for the present. Students among faculty members and students compelled the Normal School to give up its annual celebration of Washington's birthday today.
